St. James's, April 15.

AN humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Grey Nevil, and John Barrington, alias Shute, Eſq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Roxburghe, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Venice, April 2. Letters from Rome of the 27th of laſt Month give an Account, that General Schulenbourg on his Arrival there was lodged in the Houſe of Sig. Duodo, Ambaſſadour of this Republick, and being admitted to an Audience of the Pope, was received with the ſame Ceremonial that is allowed to Marſhals of France and Grandees of Spain. The ſaid General had acquainted the Pope with the true State of the Preparations of this Republick for the enſuing Campaign, and repreſented to him the Neceſſity of haſtening the auxiliary Squadrons which are deſigned to act in Conjunction with the Venetian Fleet: And having thus diſpatched the Buſineſs he had at Rome, his Excellency was preparing to ſet out from thence on the 28th for Otranto, in order to embark there for Corfu. During his Stay at Rome, he had been magnificently entertained by ſeveral Cardinals and Miniſters; and the Pope made him a Preſent. Sig. Molines had taken Leave of the Pope, and was on his Departure for Spain, there to act as Inquiſitor General of that Kingdom. The Pretender being taken ill at Peſaro, the Pope had ordered his own Phyſician, Sig. Lanciſi, to go thither and attend him. The Convoy which ſailed lately for Dalmatia, was obliged by contrary Winds to put into the Ports of Iſtria; but to Day we received Advice of their having put to Sea again; and another Convoy is getting ready to ſail ſhortly for Corfu. Sig. Sebaſtian Mocenigo has taken Leave of the Senate, in order to go to Dalmatia and take on him the Command of the Forces of this Republick there, in the Room of Sig. Angelo Emo.

Vienna, April 7. The Imperial Regiments in Hungary have begun to move from their ſeveral Quarters towards the Camp of Futack. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria, and one of his Brothers, deſign to make this Campaign under Prince Eugene. Some Veſſels are ordered to Ratisbon, for the Service of the Dutcheſs of Blankenberg, Mother of the Empreſs Conſort, who is coming hither againſt the Empreſs lyes in. His Imperial Majeſty has appointed the Counteſs Dowager of Thurn, to be Governeſs of the Child of which the Empreſs ſhall be delivered.
